

SECURE AREA

 provides its customers with a single, reliable source for their wiring construction needs.

Focused on Telephone, Cable Television, Data, Power and Security Wiring,  provides the construction management customized state-of-the-art design, materials and skilled installers.

Our Consulting Design Group addresses the customer's needs in developing a structured wiring solution. With standards changing rapidly in telephone, cable television and data speeds already exceeding 1.5 GB, planning for the wiring infrastructure's future will insure against an outdated wiring system.

Our team of engineers, construction management and in-house CAD Department can provide a package to individual construction plans. Also providing scheduling, responsiveness and the necessary documentation to insure your structured wiring solution is designed and installed to your satisfaction.

Single Source Solution

-  has the capability to consult, design, install and maintain wiring systems of any size or complexity.
-  will negotiate contracts with selected voice, data, cable television, security access control and power Service Providers.
-  will find the most qualified Service Provider offering the most competitive pricing and incentive package for you.
-  eliminate the coordination hassles and missed details that often occur with multiple contractors. One point of responsibility, one contact and a well organized, managed installation process.

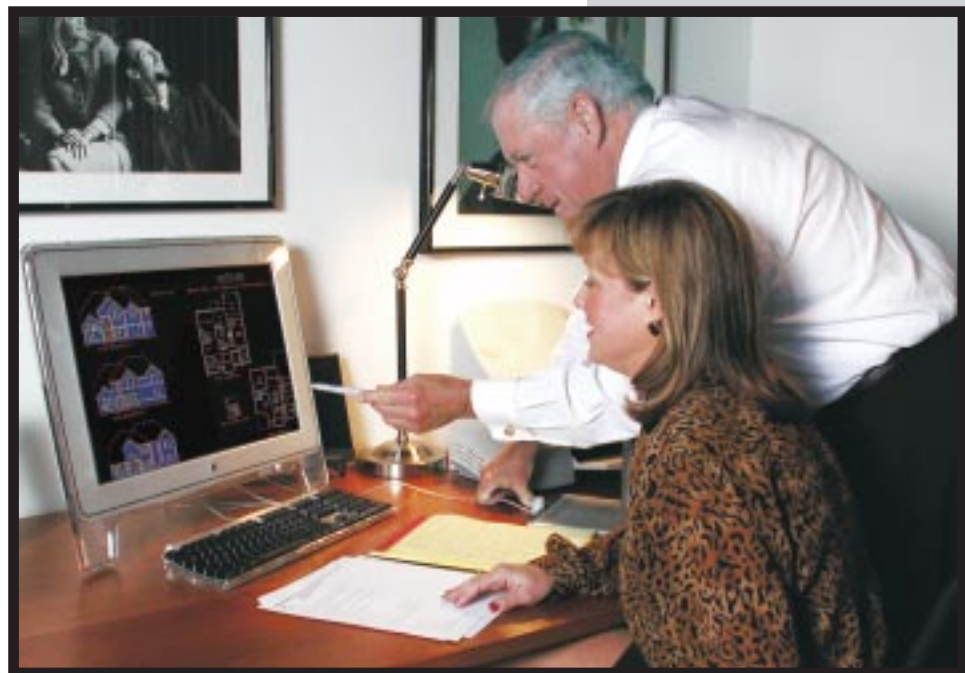

Consulting

Today's world is one of constant change in technology, regulatory, and services for telephone, cable television, data, security and power.

 equipped with years of experience, has a depth of knowledge in all of the listed fields, offers consulting and direction to it's clients.

Our technical consultants, and in-house CAD departments design a Customized, comprehensive plan for your apartment community, office complex or subdivision.

 provides a single sound solution for all of your wiring needs from infrastructure to the jacks.

's experienced Project Management team will enable you to attend to your core business while we handle all of your properties wiring needs.

Our expert Construction Management team and technicians throughout the United States can be responsive and cost efficient. We use BICSI Certified, Insured Contract Technicians.

We provide the following Services:

- Project analysis and site surveys
- Design and installation of Structured Wiring Systems
- Project Management
- Cable Plant Certification
- Testing and Warranty

Installation

 will provide a local, BICSI certified installation team to perform cable placement-infrastructure:

- Trending
- Conduit Installation
- Cable placement
- Termination
- Splicing
- Testing services, for all voice, data, cable television, security, access control and power.

Our installers use State-of-the-Art installation practices, test equipment and field-proven procedures to ensure the highest quality installation.

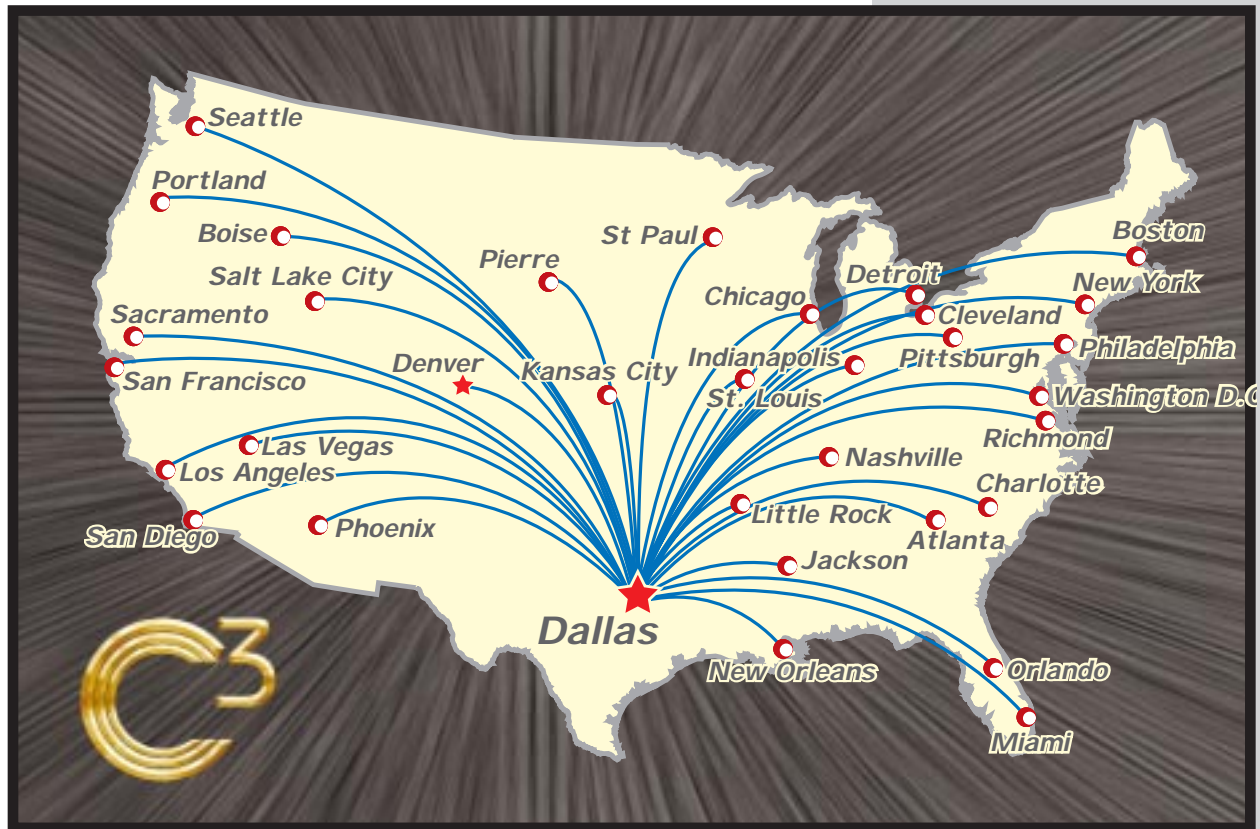

's technicians have done work for some of the largest operators in the country. Surveying outside plant Systems and collecting data on existing infrastructure.

's field survey is produced with features, such as digitized mapping , full color graphics, custom video and CD archiving!

's Consulting, Design and Engineering Services address the customer's needs in developing a structured wiring solution. With standards changing rapidly and data speeds already exceeding 1.5 GB, planning for your communities infrastructures future will insure against outdated wiring solutions.

Qualified, experienced and structured wiring installers, located in all major metropolitan markets are managed by .

Communications facilities and networks are  designed and installed to contracted specifications.

1300 E. Arapaho, Suite 330
Richardson, TX 75081
972.638.9309
Fax: 972.638.9314

info@c3site.com
www.c3site.com

